

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, the people of this Nation are now united more than ever before in a supreme effort to win the war; and

WHEREAS, even so, ill feeling is still evidenced among those who do not agree in many of the vital problems facing us and it behooves us, as American citizens, to make a positive and definite effort to thwart anything which has a tendency to countenance or encourage intolerance of others; and

WHEREAS, believing that we can strengthen our efforts and create a better feeling among our people, no matter what their race or creed may be, if we give thought to the common ideals of good citizenship and cooperative community life at a special time;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Harlan J. Bushfield, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim the period from February 15 to 22, nineteen hundred and forty-two, as and respectfully urge that South Dakotans join in helping to bring about the good will which all men ought to bear one to another.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota.

DONE AT THE CAPITOL, in the City of Pierre, this 5th day of February, nineteen hundred and forty-two.
